

Thunder Hole Long Range Report

There were 7 intrepid souls that wanted to get out of Houston so badly this Sunday that they came to shoot the Thunder Hole Long Range match, even with temperatures hovering around 100 degrees. Now that's dedication – or just plain insanity – take your pick!

Manassas Jack didn't shoot the match, but did come join us to see if his new custom smoke pole would hit the gongs. He proved it did, and got sight settings out to 500 yards. He's promised to load more ammo and become a regular at Thunder Hole.

We also learned that Diamond Rose has been sandbagging us, as you can tell by the scores below. We wuz all beat by a gurl!! She shot a near perfect score of 24/25, dropping only one shot at 400 yards. She hit the 500 yard target all 5 times, which nobody else could do! So – a new “Blind Squirrel” was inducted into the Thunder Hole “Hall of Fame” today.

Now if we can only get Little Britches and Suzie Q back out to shoot, and if Bristlecone can get Fairplay back down to Texas, we could be whopped by multiple women – which is nothing new for us guys.

Rose did let out that she messed with Crash's ammo for the match. She loaded him a “special” batch so she could be sure and beat him. Then ended up winning it all!

Congratulations Diamond Rose!
